A ROUND OF TALK.

Spring Waking.

A snowdrop lay in the sweet, dark ground.

"Come out!" said the Sun,

"Come out!"

But she lay quiet still and she heard no sound.

"Asleep?" said the Sun, "No doubt!"

The snowdrop heard, for she raised her head.

"Look spry," said the Sun,

"look spry!"

"It's warm," said the Snowdrop,

"here in bed,"

"Oh, lie!" said the Sun, "oh, lie!"

"You call too soon, Mr. Sun, you do!"

"No, no," said the sun, "Oh, no!"

"There's something above, and I can't see through."

"It's snow," said the Sun,

"just snow."

"But I say, Mr. Sun, are the robins here?"

"May be," said the sun, "May be."

"There wasn't a bird when you called last year."

"Come out!" said the Sun,

"and see!"

The snowdrop sighed, for she liked her nap,

And there wasn't a bird in sight.

But she popped out of bed in her white nightcap:

"That's right," said the Sun,

"That's right!"

And soon as the small nightcap was seen,

A robin began to sing.

The air grew warm, and the grass turned green.

"It's spring!" laughed the Sun,

"It's spring!"

—St. Nicholas.

WFUL ATTACK—The little recital contained in this column last week of the condition of feeling in Lebanon resulting from the recent local option election, has stirred up a lion in the person of the editor of the Falcon. Brother Thornbury, shakes his tawney locks and comes at us like a British man of war in a rough sea. He dips his ponderous pen and delivers the following broadside: "Many falsehoods and misrepresentations are being circulated about the condition of affairs in Lebanon resulting from the local option election. While there was considerable feeling engendered by the campaign, that is now regarded as past and all our people seem content to accept the new condition and cheerfully abide the result. Therefore we are ready to pronounce the following article taken from the Springfield News-Leader, a distorted or exaggerated statement of facts and a deliberate lie.

If getting "ready to pronounce" the awful charge causes such a brainstorm on the part of our brother we shudder to anticipate the effect on him when he really "pronounces" As for ourselves, we have received our warning and we are prepared to take to the tall timber at the first indication of the bursting of the brainstorm.

PAY UP—On April 2d the special license tax on businesses and professions in the town of Springfield was due and cases that certain dogs had been sent to the country. It was supposed that they had taken up their abode in the country permanently, but it developed in some instances that the visit was only a limited one and had for its object the saving of the dog tax to certain owners. Marshal

Grace says he is on to the scheme now however and will see that no guilty dog escapes.

Death of Mrs. Sparrow.

Martha A. Sparrow (nee Inman) of the Jensonson family, died at 6 o'clock on the morning of the 10th of April, 1907, from a cancer of the breast.

Her funeral was preached the following day by R. L. Purdon

Bethlehem church, from Eccles

8, 12: "Yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God," after which her remains was laid to rest in the cemetery.

The deceased was born in Marion county on the 2d of July 1847 and was married to Mr. G. W. Sparrow Dec. 4th

1867. Eleven children were born to this union, six of whom preceded her into the great beyond. She joined the Baptist church Sep 15th and was a member of the Beech Grove church at the time of her death. It could truly be said of her as it oftimes was: "That she was a good woman." Sister Sparrow was one of those old fashion

Christians who would praise God in the midst of congregation and would impress you as being a good wife, mother and friend one that you love to meet and feel better by having met her.

She will be sadly missed in the home, church and community.

To the bereaved ones we extend our sympathy.

fracture of two ribs.

Mrs. Nannie Burke, widow of William Burke, died at her home in the Manton neighborhood on Sunday last. The deceased was 56 years of age and leaves several grown sons and daughters. She was a good christian woman and well thought of in the commu-be sold at public outcry on April 27th. This is a good paying business and properly managed would doubtless prove a paying investment for some one.

Henry Paddock an old colored soldier of the Texas neighborhood has made complaint to the effect that he has been swindled out of ten dollars by a slick young man who gave him the name of Baker and who came from Lancaster, here. Baker is claimed to have been the old fellow that he could get him a pension in the course of a few days for the sum of ten dollars. Paddock produced the money and Baker has failed to make good. The latter is said to be also working for a life insurance company. Baker hired a horse and buggy from Wharton & Tapp on Monday and has not returned. That firm has sworn out a warrant for his arrest and the officers in adjoining towns have been notified to look out for him. The last heard of Baker was at Jensonson where he was headed for Danville.
The warrant is issued under the new law which makes it an offense for one to misrepresent to the lively firm his destination.

want something new and attractive for the home. We have a very full line of

House Furnishings

Carpets, Wall Paper, Mattings, Lino-leums, Oilcloths, Lace Curtains, and Window Shades.

We have Carpets from 25 cents a yard to $1.50. From the cheapest to the finest Velvets, Axminster and Tapestry.

GRUNDY & McINTIRE

Notice.

For the next 90 days we will wire houses for electric lighting purposes at the actual cost of materials and labor. Avoid the danger of the coal oil lamp explosions by having electric lights installed in your house.

The Weekly Courier-Journal is on a boom. Its circulation has grown wonderfully in the past few months, deservedly. No better paper is published anywhere than the weekly Courier-Journal. Henry Watterson's editorials are all printed in the Weekly.
